Where They Go

Our team has had an incredible year full of big changes! When we moved to the Shops at Ithaca Mall in June of 2022 we had high hopes for our new space. Since opening The Nook in October we have been overwhelmed by the results. We have included quotes from current Nook visitors as well as data to show just how much your support has made a difference in the lives of local families.

You are what allows this organization to continue. We are so incredibly grateful for every supporter on our team. Our donors, volunteers, staff, community champions, grantors, board members, and program sponsors are all critical to our work. This is our time to say a loud and collective THANK YOU to you all! To save on printing costs and paper, we have eliminated the list of individual donors from this report. Please know that this does not reflect on how truly essential you are to Family Reading Partnership! Our individual donors make up 50% of our revenue, and without you we absolutely could not provide our community with this level of valuable literacy outreach. The full report with a detailed list of contributors is available on our website: www.familyreading.org

Our plan for growth is working as we hoped and serving more families in more impactful ways. We are part of a much wider web of community working to ensure that our little ones have access to a rich early childhood experiences that will ready them for a lifetime of learning.

With gratitude,
Amber Smith

"We have enjoyed watching our 6 month son grow, learn and connect. He's now over a year old and looks forward to our trips to The Nook and is especially excited to see the friendly faces. The Nook has been such a treasure and invaluable resource for us."

-Jessica Riley-Jones

"We usually visit at least once a week, and our daughter always looks forward to picking out her books. I also enjoy being able to give books back when we are done with them and know they will go to other children to enjoy."

-S.M.

"The Nook has definitely made my life easier as a parent as it is a fun and safe place to spend some time outside of our home, especially during the winter months. I also love the Nook's location."

Christabelle L.

"Building community post-COVID has been challenging and we feel very fortunate to have this beautiful space to make new friends."
